

We have some news regarding your pension

As is usual, on January 1, 2019, legal amendments will be implemented that will impact deductions on the pension benefit. This means that the net pension benefit will differ from the amount paid out by PDN in December 2018. This newsletter explains the biggest changes.

January 2019: changes to the net pension benefit

The net pension benefit will change for the majority of pensioners as of January 2019. Broadly speaking, this is due to two reasons:

- New tax tables enter into effect in 2019. The tax rate for the lowest tax bracket has increased. The second and third-bracket income tax rate, on the other hand, have decreased. The percentage paid for the Wet Langdurige Zorg (WLZ, Long-term care act), previously referred to as Algemene wet bijzondere ziektekosten (AWBZ, Exceptional Medical Expenses Act), has remained the same.
- Changes to the Zorgverzekeringswet (Zvw, Healthcare Insurance Act) income-related contributions. The Zvw statutory contributions will increase to 5.70% in 2019. In 2018, this was 5.65%. PDN is legally obliged to withhold this amount on annual incomes no higher than €55,927 (in 2018 the annual maximum income threshold was €54,614).

These are Government decisions on which the pension fund has no influence. You can find more information on this topic on the Belastingdienst (Dutch Tax and Customs Administration) website: (www.Belastingdienst.nl).

If you do not live in the Netherlands

On January 1, 2019, the calculation of tax on wages changed. If you do not live in the Netherlands, tax credits take a smaller amount into account. Tax credits are credits against your tax on wages and income taxes. As a result of the reduced tax credits, you will pay more in tax on wages. This means that your pension fund will pay out a reduced pension benefit. The final amount depends on your personal situation. Your payment statement details what this means for you. The wage income tax table that you fall within depends on the country in which you live. You do not need to take any action. This will be processed automatically. For more information, please refer to www.belastingdienst.nl/internationaal.

The fiscal annual statement

The fiscal annual statement of the pensions paid by PDN in 2018 will be sent to both physical and digital addresses by the end of February at the latest. The fiscal annual statement is required to file your tax returns over 2018. We advise you to carefully compare the annual statement provided by PDN with data already filled in on your tax returns.

Good to know: Additional income tax assessment

By opting to let PDN withhold more tax and social insurance contributions on a monthly basis, you can prevent an additional income tax assessment. PDN cannot calculate the adjustment you must make to your tax and social insurance contributions for this purpose. You must personally, or with the assistance of a financial advisor, calculate the adjustment and specify this to PDN, by letter.
